Dear Matt,

I concur with Kate.

In fact, your response to Monsanto might be a good opportunity to indicate that there is a strict embargo until on-line publication in TLO (as stressed on the first day overview presentation), and all participants will be informed as soon as we have final information from TLO.

(Between the lines?) Monsanto did not adhere to the rules for Observers and broke the embargo and this might well have consequences.

Best,

Kurt

Dear Matt,

Thanks for your note. The vol 112 decisions, and the decision process, are currently embargoed. I'll let you know when that has been lifted. I'd suggest referring interested parties to IARC, but I'll let Kurt or Ivan respond as well.

Best,
